Refund Policy

Students who withdraw during the official withdrawal period for an 8-week term (e.g. add/drop period) receive a 100% tuition refund for that term. The official withdrawal period begins on the first day of classes and ends on the Sunday of the second (2nd) week of the term. Students who withdraw after the conclusion of the official withdrawal period for a term do not receive a refund of any tuition or fees applicable to that term. All applicable refunds are made within 30 days of the official withdrawal date, or administrative withdrawal determination date (if applicable). Students are provided with a 100% refund for any tuition paid for future 8-week terms that were not started as of the date of withdrawal.

Sample Refund Calculation:

If a student enrolled in two courses for the current 8-week term, and paid for the term in advance, then withdrew on Tuesday of Week 3, they do not receive a refund for the current term.
